

From Editor

We are pleased to announce the launch of ninth issue of IJEL International Journal specifically dedicated to Education and Language Studies, and release this issue. We hope that readers will find the published articles as informative as we found it to be.

Our journal is committed to shoulder the responsibility to encourage Education and Language Studies research, not only by building a World wide bridges and bonds among researchers, but also by granting Education and Language researchers equal opportunities for serving humanity and finding solutions for its problems.

One of the objectives of this journal is to encourage publication from various contexts addressing different issues dealing with an applied perspective to the field of Education and Language. We therefore would like to welcome submissions to discuss the latest developments in the field of Education and Language Studies for the future issues of IJEL.
